PROJECTS

GM university ERP Live

The GM University ERP comprises three essential modules: Teacher Module, Student Module, and Payment Module. I played a pivotal role in the development and implementation of all three, ensuring their seamless integration and optimal functionality within the system.

Additionally, I designed the official university website, gmu.ac.in, creating an intuitive and visually appealing platform that aligns with the institution's goals and enhances the user experience.

Tech Stack: PHP, Laravel, SQL, PHPmyadmin.

Pre-University EDU Project Live

The Pre-University EDU Project consists of five key modules, of which three—Test Module, Student Module, and Analysis Module—have been successfully completed. The remaining two modules are currently under development, with progress ongoing to ensure the project's comprehensive functionality.

Tech Stack: PHP, Laravel, FIGMA, SQL
